TRUE DETECTIVE TALES The attention of our readers is called to page three of this issue, and to the fourth column, wherein is published another of those remarkably and exciting "True Detective Stories" that are syndicated and copyrighted by the Wheeler Syndicate, Inc. These stories, as the title implies, are taken from life, and are not as in most cases of detective yarns, a figment of the writer's imagination. As many of them and this one particularly, are of historical value, we take pleasure in presenting them to our readers.

A Quiet Week Follows Xmas

We thought it would be easy to gather news the day after Christmas, but it wasn't. Everybody was too full for utterance! Hubby's folks entertained Sunday, and friend wife's family had 'em to dinner Monday. Roast turkey, chicken, duck, goose, mince pie, pumpkin pie, oh, gracious, wasn't it awful? And there's still New Year's Eve and New Year's Day to come! Every one had a wonderful Christmas, got lots of presents, and just what they wanted. So, everybody's happy!

No Toys for Papa On Christmas Day

A certain young man in Lomita whose initials are Monroe Gamby, said he had a fine time Christmas, but he was terribly disappointed because no one gave his little daughter any toys that he could play with.

The forehanded man who intends to turn over a new leaf on January 1 also lays in a supply of blotters.

China's boy emperor recently married a girl whose face he had never seen. If our American girls don't quit using powder and paint American boys will be doing the same thing.

The sensible man always picks out something for his wife for Christmas that she can't throw.

Mexico's president denies he was killed in the recent riots down there. But you can't always believe everything you hear from Mexico.

TRY A WANT AD

So. Pacific Co. Boosts California

Cooperative advertising is the order of the day in this generation, as evidenced by scores of publications devoted to attracting the attention of the outside world to a combination of products or the upbuilding of a group of communities. A striking example of this form of advertising is the "All The Year Around" Club that is spending hundreds of thousands of dollars in telling easterners the advantages of California during the summer, as well as winter months. Along the same line and equally effective in the page and half-page advertisements being published in the and other newspapers in Southern California, pointing out the natural resources of the state and accompanied by a coupon whereby the reader may have the entire series of well-written advertisements sent to friends in the East by giving their names and addresses.

NEW MANAGER

Elsewhere in this issue announcement is made of the change in managers for Paxman's Hardware store, Mr. William Ballum, of New Jersey, having arranged with Mr. Paxman, owner, to take charge next Monday. Mr. Ballum comes highly recommended as a hardware man, having conducted his own store in the East for several years. The stock will be greatly increased to meet the demands from contractors and the general buying public, and display of goods will be featured in order to keep a large stock before the public. The new manager will live in Lomita just as soon as accommodations can be arranged.

CAPTAIN DANCEY TO SPEAK

escape from a German prison is graphically told in the Saturday Evening Post of January 15, 1918. At the close of the war Captain Dancey, because of his natural ability, his university training, his wide experience as a soldier, traveler and journalist, together with his pleasing personality and his intense interest in a proper reconstruction of the nations along the lines of real Christian civilization, was asked by the Allied Governments to spend his whole time in lecturing.

Since the war Captain Dancey has spoken through eight different countries in two languages, the English and French, and more than seven million people have listened to his appeals for a better understanding between the peoples of the earth. Hundreds of meetings have had to be held, and this, in spite of the fact that some days he has to speak three or four times. He has spoken upon Lyceum and Chautauqua platforms, many pulpits, in Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, and in more than a thousand high schools. His post-armistice work in France won words of warm praise from Marshall Foch and other Allied leaders, while President Millerand of France, as well as leading public men in our own and other countries have been enthusiastic in their endorsement.

Every lover of Christian civilization, every lover of America, every lover of our educational institutions, should hear him. He will bring a message that every school boy and girl should hear, for he will tell the place our schools must take in the life of the nation and our civilization.

Captain Dancey speaks under the aegis of the national American Legion, the National Bureau of Community Service, a swell as under authorization of the Allied government leaders.

The Captain is a personal friend of Rev. Zeller, pastor of Central Evangelical Church, and speaks at Rev. Zeller's urgent request.

There is no charge whatever to those hearing this address.

The National Headquarters of the American Legion says: "We are deeply grateful to you for the wonderful work you are doing, not alone for the Legion, but for the cause of Americanism and a world peace." The National Bureau of Community Service says: "You are doing a world of good for community service all over the nation. We appreciate your efforts and thank you. We are in receipt of splendid reports on your work from all parts of the land, and our best wishes are with you for continued good service."

Women's Club to Meet January 8th

The next meeting of the Torrance Woman's Club to be held in the Catholic Hall January 8, will be one of the most important meetings of the year and Mrs. Frank Sammons, president, and the other officials of the club, are making every effort to secure a full membership attendance.

One of the most pressing questions to be voted on at this meeting is the program and place and time of future meetings. The vote taken January 8 will be final in this and other matters, and members who cannot possibly attend are requested to vote by proxy.

The January meeting has been called "Home Economics Day," and the members will be addressed on this subject by Kate Drew Daughn of the Los Angeles Express, as well as club members versed in home economics.

How to Get Your New Auto License

The following instructions are issued by the division of motor vehicles to owners of motor vehicles in making application for 1923 registration.

See to it now that you have a 1922 certificate of registration. If you have not, apply to the department for a duplicate.

If you have changed your address, forward your certificate to the department with the change of address noted thereon for correction.

If your certificate is illegible, send it to the department and you will receive a new one.

If there is a legal owner on the certificate whose claim has been satisfied, it will be necessary to have the legal owner sign as same on the back of the certificate to release his claim.

If a second-hand motor vehicle has been purchased, have a transfer made in the department at once and secure a certificate in your name.

If you have changed or altered the style of your vehicle to a different type, get a dismantling form from the sheriff, police or other peace official and mail it to the department with your certificate, and a new certificate will be issued.

Non-resident owners whose permit to operate in this state has expired, must apply at once for a California license.

CARD OF THANKS

To My Neighbors; the Merchants, and the Citizens of Torrance:

I am taking this means thru our local editor, of conveying in at least a small degree, the deep gratitude which I feel toward the many friends, who so kindly and thoughtfully provided such an abundance of things to create Christmas cheer for myself and five little ones, and for the alleviation of my thoughts from the grief which the recent passing of my wife had occasioned.

To attempt to express here in words the feeling within me is indeed a futile endeavor toward carrying to you my heart's message.

With most sincere appreciation, I am, gratefully yours, E. E. SCOTT.

BARTLETT TO STAGE DANCE

his trainers say that Leroy will have to step to get even a look-in.

Whee-e-e! Sammy Kaspar and Sailor Ritchie at 140 pounds in the semi-windup. Oh, grandma! It would be spilling the beans to say more!

In the main event we get a taste of real class—Eddie Buell of the Connecticut and Kid Mende of the P. E. Now, if that isn't worth your old dollar and a half, what in the name of mud pies do you want?

As a classy card, we believe that the clubs up town will have to step several steps to even equal it.

Remember the date—next Wednesday night, January 3, at 8:30.

New Year resolutions—Resolve to subscribe to your home town paper and resolve to tell your borrowing neighbor to do the same thing.

Key contest closed at the Dolley Drug Store. Bring all your keys in. They must be in by January 1. If the proper key has not been turned in at this time, there will be another drawing—Advertisement.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS A special meeting of the Royal Neighbors will be held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Fess Friday evening, December 29, at 1729 Arlington avenue. All members are urged to be present. The Royal Neighbors and Modern Woodmen of America will hold a joint meeting Thursday evening, January 4, Los Angeles and Long Beach teams will be present and install the officers. Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Bennett of Arlington avenue entertained their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Richards, of San Bernardino, over Christmas. If there is a man who isn't capable of governing himself it's up to him to get married. J. P. Graf of San Pedro was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fess, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Brown of Los Angeles were Christmas Eve dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fess. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fess entertained at dinner Christmas day the latter's mother and brothers, Mrs. A. E. Shugg, Guy and Cecil Shugg, and Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Caruthers and daughter, Thelma, of El Monte. We see where they fixed the ball of a New York bootlegger at $100,000. That must have taken almost all of his spare change.
